

Boris hails £1bn rail line opening

LONDON mayor Boris Johnson hailed the opening of a £1 billion rail route yesterday as a perfect mix of old and new. The route on the old East London line will carry 100,000 passengers a day in new air-conditioned trains. Mr Johnson (pictured) hoped many jobs would be created.

